

Antisemitism expresses itself in different forms in today's Greece. Greek society has a long history of traditional or modern expressions of hatred against Judaism and Jews. The conference will discuss current research on the religious, political, economic, social, educational and popular dimensions of the phenomenon. In five panel sessions different aspects of antisemitic stereotypes, resentments and prejudices will be addressed.

Zentrum für Antisemitismusforschung

Ernst-Reuter-Platz 7 (TEL 9-1)
10587 Berlin

Conference venue

Hardenbergstr. 16-18 (HBS)
Raum 005, Erdgeschoss

Registration

GreeceConf@asf.tu-berlin.de

Teilnahme nur nach vorheriger
Anmeldung bis spätestens zum
1. Juli 2014 möglich!

Antisemitism in Greece

Past and Present Trajectories
Conference, 7/8 July 2014

Organisation

- Zentrum für Antisemitismusforschung, TU Berlin, ZfA
- Centrum Modernes Griechenland FU Berlin, CeMoG
- National Centre for Social Research Athen, EKKE

7. July, Monday

9.30 Opening Remarks

Stefanie Schüler-Springorum, TU Berlin, ZfA
Miltos Pechlivanos, FU Berlin, CeMoG
Nicolas Demertzis, EKKE

09.45 Key Note Speech

Minna Rozen, University of Haifa
Antisemitism in Greece: New Perspectives on Old Prejudices

10.30-12.00 Chair: Kostas Sarris, FU Berlin
The Inter-War Years and Antisemitism

The Close Ties between Nationalism and Antisemitism:
The Hellenisation of Salonika, 1917-1948
Rena Molho, Historian

“Vipers” and “Snakes”, “Komitadjis” and “Pseudo-Nationalists”:
Anti-Zionist Discourses in Interwar Greece,
Paris Papamichos Chronakis, Brown University, Providence

Exit-Voice-Loyalty: Jewish Responses to Antisemitism in Salonika 1923-1936
Maria Vassilikou, Institut für Zeitgeschichte Berlin

12.00-13.30 Lunch

13.30 -16.00 Chair: Atina Grossmann, HU Berlin
The Holocaust and its Aftermath

Local-Decision Making and the Holocaust:
The Case of Thessaloniki
Leon Saltiel, University of Macedonia, Thessaloniki

Service for the Disposal of Jewish Property (YDIP):
German Intervention and Profitable Procedures
Stratos Dordanas, University of Macedonia, Thessaloniki

Survivors Unwanted: Postwar Antisemitism in Southeastern
Europe: The Case of Greece
Gabriella Etmektsoglou, New York University Berlin

Holocaust Survivors and Memory of the Holocaust
Giorgos Antoniou, International Hellenic University,
Thessaloniki

16.00 -16.30 Coffee Break

16.30 -18.00 Chair: Marcus Funck, TU Berlin, ZfA
Greek Political Culture and Antisemitism

Left Antisemitism in Greece, 1980-2014
Jean Cohen, Journalist

Antisemitism in the Greek Far Right after 1974
Despina Papadimitriou/Vassiliki Georgiadou
Panteion University of Athens

Antisemitism in Greece: Evidence from a Survey Experiment
Elias Dinas/Spyros Kosmidis, University of Oxford

18.30 Dinner

8. July, Tuesday

09.00-11.30 Chair: Werner Bergmann, TU Berlin, ZfA
Antisemitism and Greek Society

Holocaust and Social Trauma in Greece Today
Nicolas Demertzis
National Centre for Social Research Athen

Greek-Orthodox (political) Theology and Antisemitism:
An Interwar Greek-German Debate and its Present Legacy
Tassos Anastasiadis, McGill University, Montreal

Forms of Antisemitism in the Media in Contemporary Greece
Tobias Blümel, Freie Universität Berlin

An Unstipulated Case. Holocaust Denial
and the Greek Legal Order
Nikos Zaikos, University of Macedonia, Thessaloniki

11.30 Coffee Break

12.00- 13.30 Chair: Rainer Liedtke, TU Darmstadt
Antisemitism in Europe

Italy
Juliane Wetzel, TU Berlin, ZfA

Spain
Anna Menny, Institut für die Geschichte der Deutschen
Juden Hamburg

Bulgaria Sofia University
Albena Taneva,

Greece
Katerina Kralova, Charles University Prag